

PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

Guacamolito Procesadora produces natural pulp of pressurized and frozen avocado, elaborated only with HASS avocado of Michoacán origin. Our product is made with an artisan touch, creating a pulp with exquisite taste and texture.

In addition to its extraordinary flavor, avocado has a wide variety of health benefits, among the most important is rich in healthy fat of the healthiest type: monounsaturated, such as olive oil; It is also rich in vitamin E, which protects the cell membrane and its nucleus, which can prevent the development of degenerative diseases such as cancer; besides being a source of minerals and other vitamins providing 22% of the daily needs of vitamin C, some provitamin A and a variety of minerals (potassium, calcium, magnesium, phosphorus, iron, copper and zinc).

All our products go through a HPP (High Pressure Processing) process, which guarantees the integrity of our pulp without affecting the sensory characteristics of the product, extending its shelf life.
